Back on the market after buyer's financing fell through! Welcome home to 5119 Inlet Drive. Enjoy convenient townhome living with no HOA or condo fees. The current owners have gone above and beyond to update and upgrade this home, including newer windows and siding. Throughout the entire interior, you~ll find low-maintenance, durable, and stylish newer laminate flooring. The kitchen has been completely remodeled, complete with custom cabinetry, quiet close drawers and cabinets, and loads of storage. Stainless steel appliances and quartz countertops make for a stylish and functional gourmet kitchen. The living room, kitchen, and dining room flow seamlessly into the back yard, complete with patio and pergola, perfect for entertaining on summer evenings. There is also a storage closet in the backyard for all of your outdoor equipment. Finishing out the main floor is a well appointed and conveniently located powder room. Upstairs, you~ll find an updated hall bathroom with plenty of storage and two well-sized bedrooms with large closets. There is also an enormous master bedroom with three closets and a completely remodeled master bathroom. The fully finished basement is divided into two large rooms. One room functions as a laundry room with tons of storage, great for a workshop. The other large room in the basement is an ideal family room, with plenty of space for relaxing, playing or exercising. Conveniently located to shopping, restaurants and transportation, this home is districted to sought-after Russel C Strubel Elementary School and Cecilia Snyder Middle School. Schedule your showing today and move in by the end of summer!
